MERRY CHRISTMAS

From the Chamber Office

The chamber office finds itself busy these days with the planning of the Christmas Parade and the Annual Dinner.

The Christmas parade is the kick off of the holiday season. Floats, Bands and of course the fire truck with the arrival of Santa will round out the event. Sun theater will provide a free movie for the children.

The Annual dinner will be on January 10th at the Opera House. This is the annual "party" for our members. Please mark your calendars, invitations will be in the mail soon. It will be a nice dinner with entertainment and of course the awards for Business person of the year, Teacher of the year, and the ATHENA will be given out.

A big supply of winter coats and apparel were taken to the Grand Ledge food bank this week. The chamber is a drop off center for all winter clothing/coats for the needy, if you have any unwanted items please drop them off at the chamber office.

As you are doing your Christmas shopping remember the chamber office has hooded sweat shirts, tee shirts and tote bags for sale. They make a nice Christmas gift.

Membership invoices for 2012 have been mailed out and we have already received several payments. Thank you for your quick response.

As always if you have any suggestions or concerns please feel free to call the chamber office.
