

“Good Morning Grand Ledge”

November 16, 2006 the Chamber Ambassadors Committee hosts “Good Morning Grand Ledge”. On a cold over cast rainy morning members of the Chamber venture out to network and enjoy a continental breakfast at the Opera House downtown Grand Ledge.

Waiting for everyone to get that first cup of coffee Kim Bengel and Craig Goble wait to start the fast past meeting.

Craig Goble chairperson of the Chamber's Ambassadors Committee calls the meeting to order and updates the visiting members.

Sharing political stories are Mayor Deming of Grand Ledge and Dan Davis of the Grand Ledge Public Schools.

First up on the podium is Norm Snyder of the Chamber to share up coming events about holiday activities for Grand Ledge.

“Good Morning Grand Ledge”

John and Ethelen Herbstreit with Aaron Schafer enjoy breakfast while sharing in the networking process.

Jon Bayless shares City project updates and what's happening at City Hall.

President Bill Atkin listens to speakers share community information among Chamber membership and guest.

Susan Sasse shares success stories about real estate sales in the community. The home sales market is turning upward.

“Good Morning Grand Ledge”

Melanie Dart is all smiles listening to speakers share information about what's happening in Grand Ledge.

Pat Basgall and Michael Paceleo of Drolett's Travel Unlimited enjoy networking and listening to the speakers

Dan Davis shares information about Grand Ledge Public Schools and the recent bond issue.

Kalmin Smith listens intently as Jon Bayless and Susan Sasse talk about housing market in Grand Ledge.

“Good Morning Grand Ledge”

Jeana Rohrs provides the group with information about Growing Businesses of Grand Ledge Group formerly known as GLAR.

Jon Grocki shares what is happening in particular with the stock market since the election.

After sixty minutes of community information and membership networking Craig Goble (Dart Bank), Chairman of the Ambassadors Committee brings the meeting to an end without anyone getting caught by the Nerf Rocket Launcher. The “Good Morning Grand Ledge” meetings have been developed to be a fast moving informal community updating process for Chamber membership and guest.

Next “Good Morning Grand Ledge” will be January 16, 2007 at the Opera House in downtown Grand Ledge starting at 7:30 am. Please come and join us.